the other primary use for tiktok coins is in post promotions if you want to boost a specific video and get it in front of many people you can use the tiktok promote feature this feature costs different amounts based on the time you want the promotion to run and your target number of views tiktok supports different payment methods from which you can pay for the coins that you intend on buying you can use your bank account paypal account your credit card or you can use google pay or apple pay if yes you have come to the right place tiktok is one of the most famous social media platforms till date and the reason for that it has brought something new into the content creating industry you can create different types of content and you can do it with ease as its algorithm supports short and to the point videos the first thing to keep in mind is that none of these approaches are guaranteed tiktok generates income from coins thus giving them out for free is unusual nonetheless some people have experienced success with these approaches so feel free to give them a shot but be cautious and understand that the outcome isn't guaranteed but as there is too much multiplication and process involved in converting the value of coins to diamonds and then to their worth for buying gifts it is not that easy to track down all the details and find out the exact value of the gifts the first and simplest way is to receive them as gifts users can send coins to someone else but you have to invest time and make content that will invite people to send you coins ask yourself is the time it takes to do that worth the small amount you'd save first we will convert these coins into diamonds to calculate the value of these coins 100 tiktok coins are equal to 50 diamonds and this is because each coin is equal to half of a diamond and as the value of each diamond is given to be of 5 cents and 100 diamonds will be equal to 50
