hi owen as of the patch v1.03 this method is unfortunately not working anymore a good alternative right now is to play a game in the nba my career mode and play up to the beginning of the 3rd quarter make sure that you have at least a 25 point lead then quit and sim to the end make sure to reduce the difficulty to the easiest level rookie difficulty to achieve the prerequisite easier this might be a bit hard for a new player but it gets easier once you get the hang of it also make sure to reduce the difficulty to the easiest level rookie difficulty to achieve that 25 point lead easier
