even though you cannot physically line up the cue stick and measure a shot with your eye line and body you can do something a simple trick cheat would be to have a small piece of paper with straight edge lines place the edge of the paper with the small aim lines and your aim is extended but have in mind that you have limited time and do this quickly this is a quick way to give yourself an advantage right out of the gate by using the few coins you initially earn to upgrade your cue you ll have more success at winning your matches the first cues you will have access to purchase can give you slight advantages to make you shoot with more power extend your aiming guides improve your cue ball control or increase the amount of time you have to shoot the more you play the more cues you can unlock for purchase initially the cues you can access are just okay but as you log more hours and wins you can use the coins you earn in the game to buy cues with some really great benefits

8 ball pool's level system means you're always facing a challenge play matches to increase your ranking and get access to more exclusive match locations where you play against only the best pool players

if there are easy shots readily available for you to hit then pot those balls before they are disrupted from that ideal position when you play a pool game your motive is to pot all your chosen balls before your opponent so do not miss any chance to stay ahead of them in the game there's nothing worse in 8 ball pool than having your shot lined up just right then suddenly your turn is up before you've made your shot instead of a clock to time your shots a little green square envelopes your avatar and starts counting down your time to line up your shots quicker do so by tapping and dragging on the pool table surface in front of the tip of the cue this will move the cue faster then make more precise shot adjustments by dragging from the cue's handle until it's positioned exactly where you want
